DEFINITIONS:

CANVASSER: Any person canvassing for funds door-to-door in the City on behalf of a charitable, religious or nonprofit organization as defined in Internal Revenue Service Code Section 501(c)(3).

PEDDLER: Any person with no fixed place of business dealing in the City who travels around from place-to-place, or street-to-street, carrying or transporting goods, or soliciting for all manner of wares, services and merchandise, offering such wares, service or merchandise for sale or making sales and delivering articles to purchasers.

SOLICITOR: Any person who goes from place-to-place and/or house-to-house soliciting or taking or attempting to take orders for the purchase of any food, wares or merchandise, including magazines, books, periodicals or personal property of any nature whatsoever for delivery in the future, or orders for the performance of a service in or about the home or place of business, such as furnace cleaning, roof repair, or blacktopping.

TRANSIENT MERCHANT: Any person, whether as principal, employee, or agent, who engages in, does, or transacts any temporary or transient business in the City, either in one locality or traveling from place-to-place in the City selling goods, wares, and merchandise, and who, for the purpose of carrying on such business, hires, leases, occupies or uses a building, structure, vehicle, property, or other place for the exhibition and sale of such goods, wares, and merchandise.
